

Beyond Multiculturalism

Views from Anthropology

Edited by

GIULIANA B. PRATO
University of Kent, UK

Sondersammelgebiet
Volks- & Völkerkunde
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

ASHGATE

Contents

	List of Figures and Tables	vii
	List of Contributors	ix
1	Introduction – Beyond Multiculturalism: Anthropology at the Intersections Between the Local, the National and the Global Giuliana B. Prato	1
2	A Visual Approach to Multiculturalism Jerome Krase	21
3	Immigration and its Impacts on Canadian Cities Eric Fong	39
4	The Transnational Family Among Urban Diaspora Populations Paula Rubel and Abraham Rosman	57
5	Minorities in Italy: The Cases of Arbëresh and Albanian Migrations Giuliana B. Prato	79
6	Dynamics of Exclusion and Integration: A Sobering View from Italy Italo Pardo	103
7	Socio-Ethnic Interaction and Identity Formation Among the Qom-Toba in Rosario Héctor Vázquez and Graciela Rodríguez	123
8	Workers in Late Modernity: Traditional Working-Class Culture in Capitalist Globalization Suzana Burnier	141
9	Young Urban Migrants Between Two Cultures Danila Mayer	151
10	Migration, the Emergence of Multi-Ethnic Cities and Ethnic Relations in China Zhang Jijiao	173

11	Sharing Cultures: Integration, Assimilation and Interaction in the Indian Urban Context Sumita Chaudhuri	189
12	The Consumption of Experience and the Ethnic Market: Cosmopolitan Identity Beyond Multiculturalism Silvia Surrenti	201
	Index	217