

The Ashgate Research Companion to Multiculturalism

Edited by

DUNCAN IVISON

University of Sydney, Australia

ASHGATE

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
1 Introduction: Multiculturalism as a Public Ideal Duncan Ivison	1
PART I FOUNDATIONS
2 Liberal Multiculturalism Geoffrey Brahm Levey	19
3 Multiculturalism and Political Morality Jocelyn Maclure	39
4 Multiculturalism and Political Ontology Paul Patton	57
PART II CHALLENGES
5 Diversity and the Limits of Liberal Toleration Thomas M. Besch	75
6 Multiculturalism and the Social Sphere Barbara Arneil and Fiona MacDonald	95
7 Multiculturalism, Gender and Justice Avigail Eisenberg	119
8 Multiculturalism, Pluralism and Democracy James Bohman	141
9 Multiculturalism and Recognition Nicholas H. Smith	159

10	Postcolonial Multiculturalism Monica Mookherjee	179
11	Conditional Multiculturalism: Islam in Liberal Democratic States Michael Humphrey	199
12	Multiculturalism and Cosmopolitanism Charles Jones	217
PART III ALTERNATIVE PERSPECTIVES
13	Intercultural Relations at the Limits of Multicultural Governmentality Ghassan Hage	235
14	Security Warning: Multiculturalism Alert! Rita Kaur Dhamoon	255
15	Master Kong versus Master Mo: Two Views of Cosmopolitanism and Multiculturalism in the Early Chinese Philosophical Tradition Jeffrey Riegel	277
	Bibliography	295
	Index	323