

Tourism and National Identities

An international perspective

Edited by

Elsbeth Frew and Leanne White

Contents

List of illustrations	xi
List of contributors	xiii
Acknowledgements	xix
1 Tourism and national identities: connections and conceptualisations LEANNE WHITE AND ELSPETH FREW	1
PART I
Identity and image	11
2 Tourism and national identity in the United States: the case of Washington, DC WEI-JUE HUANG AND CARLA A. SANTOS	13
3 Brand Ireland: tourism and national identity ANTHONY PATTERSON	26
4 National identity construction and tourism in Hungary: a multi-level approach MELANIE SMITH AND LÁSZLÓ PUCZKÓ	38
5 Wizards everywhere?: film tourism and the imagining of national identity in New Zealand ANNE BUCHMANN AND WARWICK FROST	52
6 The role of the horse in Australian tourism and national identity LEANNE WHITE	65

PART II

Culture and community 77

- 7 Tourism's role in the national identity formulation of the United Kingdom's Pakistani diaspora 79
NAZIA ALI AND ANDREW HOLDEN
- 8 The 2008 Beijing Olympic Games and China's national identity: a host community perspective 93
FANG MENG AND XIANG LI
- 9 Nation in transformation: tourism and national identity in the Kyrgyz Republic 105
PETER SCHOFIELD AND AGATA MACCARRONE-EAGLEN
- 10 Where mega meets modest: community events and the making of Canadian national identity 121
CHANTAL LAWS AND ROB FERGUSON
- 11 Location and landscape: small-scale sporting events and national identity 136
ELSPETH FREW

PART III

Heritage and history 149

- 12 Outlaw nations: tourism, the frontier and national identities 151
FIONA WHEELER, JENNIFER LAING, LIONEL FROST, KEIR REEVES AND WARWICK FROST
- 13 Heritage and aspects of nation: Vietnam's Ho Chi Minh Museum 164
HUONG THANH BUI, LEE JOLLIFFE AND ANH MINH NGUYEN
- 14 Battlefield tourism and Australian national identity: Gallipoli and the Western Front 176
CAROLINE WINTER
- 15 Travelling to the past: narratives of place and national identity on the Chatham Islands 190
ADRIANA CAMPELO AND ROBERT AITKEN

16	Dark tourism and national identity in the Australian history curriculum: unexamined questions regarding educational visits to sites of human suffering	202
	JACQUELINE Z. WILSON
17	Research directions for tourism and national identities	215
	ELSPETH FREW AND LEANNE WHITE
	Index	219