

Inclusion and Exclusion of Young Adult Migrants in Europe

Barriers and Bridges

Edited by

KATRINE FANGEN

KIRSTEN FOSSAN

FERDINAND ANDREAS MOHN

University of Oslo, Norway

Sondersammelgebiet
Volks- & Völkerkunde

in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

ASHGATE

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	ix
List of Contributors	xi
1 Introduction: Turning Adult, Becoming Nationalized Katrine Fangen and Ferdinand Andreas Mohn	1
2 Spain: Irregular Lives in the Southern Rim of Europe Carles Feixa, Oriol Romani, Nadia Hakim, Andrea Latorre Reolon, Laura Porzio and Alexis Rodríguez	17
3 The UK: Imperial Spectres, New Migrations and the State of 'Permanent Emergency' Les Back and Shamser Sinha	51
4 Estonia: A Post-Soviet Predicament Kristina Kallas and Kristjan Kaldur	81
5 Italy: Unreceptive Climate and Forced Adulthood Roberto Alzetta, Francesca Lagomarsino and Andrea Ravecca	109
6 Norway: The Pitfalls of Egalitarianism Katrine Fangen and Ferdinand Andreas Mohn	139
7 France: Diversity in the Republican Nation Vincent Ferry, Xavier Engels and Marie Lambert	175
8 Sweden: Being a Stranger in the 'People's Home' Nils Hammarén	203
9 Assessing the Situation: Cross-National Comparison Katrine Fangen and Ferdinand Andreas Mohn	237
Index	275