

Sugar Heritage and Tourism in Transition

Edited by
Lee Jolliffe

CHANNEL VIEW PUBLICATIONS
Bristol • Buffalo • Toronto

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Contributors	ix
Part 1: Introduction
1 Connecting Sugar Heritage and Tourism Lee Jolliffe	3
Part 2: Perspectives from Sugar-Producing Countries
2 Tourism Potential at the Origins of Sugar Production Linda Joyce Forristal	23
3 Sugar-Related Tourism in Australia: A Historical Perspective Peter D. Griggs	37
4 Brazil's Sugar Heritage and Tourism – From Engenhos to Cachaça Angela Cabral Flecha and Linda Joyce Forristal	65
Part 3: Perspectives from Countries Transitioning from Sugar to Tourism
5 The Industrial Heritage of Sugar at World Heritage Sites in the Caribbean Tara A. Inniss and Lee Jolliffe	89
6 Developing Sugar Heritage Tourism in St Kitts Rachel Dodds and Lee Jolliffe	110

7	The Contested Heritage of Sugar and Slavery at Tourism Attractions in Barbados and St Lucia Mechelle N. Best and Winston F. Phulgence	128
---	---	-----

8	Transforming Taiwan's Sugar Refineries for Leisure and Tourism Abby Liu	143
---	---	-----

Part 4: Consuming Sugar and its Heritage

9	Sugar in Tourism: 'Wrapped in Devonshire Sunshine' Paul Cleave	159
---	--	-----

10	Sugarcane and the Sugar Train: Linking Tradition, Trade and Tourism in Tropical North Queensland Leanne White	175
----	---	-----

11	From Sugar as Industry to Sugar as Heritage: Changing Perceptions of the Chelsea Sugar Works Jane Legget	189
----	--	-----

12	Sugar Heritage at the World's Museums Lee Jolliffe	208
----	--	-----

Part 5: Conclusion

13	Issues and Trends in Sugar Heritage Tourism Lee Jolliffe	223
----	--	-----

	Index	232
--	-------	-----