

Children in Crisis

Ethnographic Studies
in International Contexts

Edited by Manata Hashemi and Martín Sánchez-Jankowski

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction: Children in Crisis	1
MANATA HASHEMI AND MARTÍN SÁNCHEZ-JANKOWSKI
1 Street Children, AIDS Orphans, and Unprotected Minors: What You Read Is Not What You See	9
LEWIS APTEKAR
2 Longitudinal Repeated Ethnography: Theoretical Implications for a Cultural, Social Class and Gendered Understanding of Children on the Streets in Kenya	25
PHILIP L. KILBRIDE
3 Refugees in the Middle East: Identity Politics among Sahrawi, Palestinian, and Afghan Youth	42
DAWN CHATTY
4 No Balm in Gilead: Childhood, Suffering, and Survival in Haiti	61
J. CHRISTOPHER KOVATS-BERNAT
5 Children at Toxic Risk	82
JAVIER AUYERO
6 (Im)permeable Boundaries: Why Integration into Affluent White-Majority Schools for Low-Income Minority Students is Elusive	100
PRUDENCE L. CARTER
Contributors	123
Index	127