

African Diaspora in Brazil

History, Culture and Politics

Edited by
Fassil Demissie

Sondersammelgebiet
Volks- & Völkerkunde
Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Contents

Citation Information	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
1. Introduction Fassil Demissie	1
2. Deconstructing invisibility: race and politics of visual culture in Brazil Julio Cesar de Tavares	5
3. Retaking the Middle Passage: glimpses of a modern African diaspora in Brazil Wangui Kimari	15
4. Afro-Brazilian poetry: a laboratory of identity Cyril Vettorato	29
5. Blackness in movement: identifying with capoeira Angola in and out of Brazil Scott Head and Heloisa Gravina	44
6. The jogo de capoeira and the fallacy of 'creole' cultural forms T.J. Desch Obi	61
7. A Bença: The Blessings of the Bando de Teatro Olodum Cheryl Sterling	79
8. Food and spirits: religion, gender, and identity in the 'African' cuisine of Northeast Brazil Allan Charles Dawson	93
9. Black leaders and their concept of freedom in nineteenth century northeast Brazil Tshombe Miles	114
10. The struggle for black land rights in Brazil: an insider's view on quilombos and the quilombo land movement Merle L. Bowen	133

CONTENTS

11. Race talk in a public high school in Salvador Bahia: discourses of power and resistance Jenifer Crawford-Lima, Jadiel Navarro Lima, Luis Carlos Ferreiro and Adilbênia Freire Machado	155
Index	172