

BEYOND AINU STUDIES

---

Changing Academic and Public Perspectives

Mark J. Hudson, ann-elise lewallen, and Mark K. Watson

Sondersammelgebiet
Volks- & Völkerkunde
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

University of Hawai'i Press
Honolulu

CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgments ix

Message from Ainu-Mosir (Poem) xi

Yūki Kōji, Translated by Misa Adele Honde

1 Beyond Ainu Studies: An Introduction 1

Mark K. Watson, ann-elise lewallen, and Mark J. Hudson

THEME ONE Representation / Objectification

2 Ainu Ethnography: Historical Representations in the West 25

Hans Dieter Ölschleger

3 Tourists, Anthropologists, and Visions of Indigenous Society in Japan 45

Tessa Morris-Suzuki

THEME TWO New Critical Responses

4 Tokyo Ainu and the Urban Indigenous Experience 69

Mark K. Watson

5 Charanke 86

Uzawa Kanako

6 As a Child of Ainu 92

Sunazawa Kayo

THEME THREE Academic Disciplines and Understandings of Ainu

7 Is Ainu History Japanese History? 101

David L. Howell

- 8 Ainu and Hunter-Gatherer Studies 117
Mark J. Hudson
- 9 Trade and the Paradigm Shift in Research on Ainu
Hunting Practices 136
Deriha Kōji

THEME FOUR The Discourse of Culturalism

- 10 Our Ancestors' Handprints: The Evolution of Ainu
Women's Clothing Culture 153
Tsuda Nobuko
- 11 The Gender of Cloth: Ainu Women and Cultural Revitalization 171
ann-elise lewallen
- 12 From Collecting Words to Writing Grammars:
A Brief History of Ainu Linguistics 185
Kirsten Refsing
- 13 The Ainu, Law, and Legal Mobilization, 1984–2009 200
Georgina Stevens

References

Contributors

Index