

ETHNICITY, BORDERS, AND THE GRASSROOTS INTERFACE WITH THE STATE

Studies on Mainland Southeast Asia
in Honor of Charles F. Keyes

Edited by John A. Marston

Sondersammelgebiet
Volks- & Völkerkunde

in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

 Silkworm Books

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	v
Introduction	1
THE STATE AND PUBLIC CEREMONY
1 The Tenth Day of March and Contingent Lineages of Vietnamese Statehood	23
Allison Truitt
2 Rock Your Religion: Shan Buddhist Ritual and Stage-Show Revelry in a Contested Zone at the Thai-Burma Border	45
Jane M. Ferguson
3 Reestablishing the Cambodian Monkhood	65
John A. Marston
THE GRASSROOTS NEGOTIATION OF MODERNITY
4 Alterity to Modernity: Village-Based Self-Sufficient Farm Production in Northeastern Thailand	103
Ratana Tosakul

5	Christianity, Modernity, and Creativity: The Construction of a Lahu Baptist Identity	125
	Judith M. S. Pine
6	Contested Citizenship: Cards, Colors, and the Culture of Identification	143
	Pinkaew Laungaramsri
CROSSING BORDERS OF STATE AND NATION
7	Narrating Legitimacy, Narrating Agencies: Citizenship Negotiations among Internationally Displaced Laotians in Northeastern Thailand	165
	Suchada Thaweessit
8	Temporary Lives, Eternal Dreams: Experiences of Viet Labor Migrants in Savannakhet, Laos	191
	Duong Bich Hanh
9	Cross-Border Hypergamy and Gendered Agency: Farang Husbands and Isan Wives on the Global Cultural Stage	215
	Suriya Smutkupt and Pattana Kitiarsa
	Charles F. Keyes: His Life and Work	245
	Questions for Charles Keyes	251
	Selected Publications of Charles Keyes	263
	Contributors	277
	Index	281