

The Anarchist Imagination

Anarchism Encounters the Humanities and the Social Sciences

Edited by

Carl Levy and Saul Newman

Contents

List of tables	ix
List of contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Introduction: Anarchism encounters the humanities and the social sciences CARL LEVY	1
2 The two anarchies: The Arab uprisings and the question of an anarchist sociology MOHAMMED A. BAMYEH	30
3 Contesting the state of nature: Anarchism and International Relations ZAHEER KAZMI	42
4 Anarchism and Critical Security Studies CHRIS ROSSDALE	62
5 Postanarchism today: Anarchism and political theory SAUL NEWMAN	81
6 Anarchism and political science: History and anti-science in radical thought RUTH KINNA	95
7 Toward an anarchist-feminist analytics of power SANDRA JEPPESEN	110
8 Loving politics: On the art of living together VISHWAM J. HECKERT	132
9 Black flag mapping: Emerging themes in anarchist geography ANTHONY INCE	146
10 In dialogue: Anarchism and postcolonialism MAIA RAMNATH	163

viii Contents

11	What is law? ELENA LOIZIDOU	181
12	Anarchism and education studies JUDITH SUISSA	194
13	Anarchism and religious studies ALEXANDRE CHRISTOYANNOPOULOS	210
14	Aesthetics of tension ALLAN ANTLIFF	229
15	Conclusion in three acts: False genealogies and suspect methodologies? CARL LEVY	240
	Index	259