

Economy and Ritual

Studies of Postsocialist Transformations

Edited by

STEPHEN GUDEMAN AND CHRIS HANN

berghahn

NEW YORK • OXFORD
www.berghahnbooks.com

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Map of Field Sites for Economy and Ritual Group	x
Introduction. Ritual, Economy, and the Institutions of the Base Stephen Gudeman and Chris Hann	1
Chapter 1. Economy as Ritual: The Problems of Paying in Wine Jennifer Cash	31
Chapter 2. Animals in the Kyrgyz Ritual Economy: Symbolic and Moral Dimensions of Economic Embedding Nathan Light	52
Chapter 3. From Pig-Sticking to Festival: Changes in Pig-Sticking Practices in the Hungarian Countryside Bea Vidacs	79
Chapter 4. Kurban: Shifting Economy and the Transformations of a Ritual Detelina Tocheva	107
Chapter 5. The Trader's Wedding: Ritual Inflation and Money Gifts in Transylvania Monica Vasile	137
Chapter 6. "We don't have work. We just grow a little tobacco.": Household Economy and Ritual Effervescence in a Macedonian Town Miladina Monova	166

Appendix. The “Economy and Ritual” Project and the Field Questionnaire	192
Notes on Contributors	198
Index	200