

Mapping Indigenous Presence

North Scandinavian and North American Perspectives

Edited by

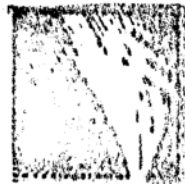

KATHRYN W. SHANLEY

AND BJØRG EVJEN

Foreword by

S. JAMES ANAYA

Sondersammelgebiet
Volks- & Völkerkunde
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA PRESS

TUCSON

Contents

Foreword: Looking to the Future for Indigenous Peoples' Rights S. James Anaya	vii
Acknowledgments	xi
Maps
Lower Forty-Eight U.S. States with Montana Highlighted	2
Indian Reservations and Tribes in the State of Montana	3
Map of Sápmi, the Sámi Homeland Spanning Norway, Finland, Sweden, and Russia	4
National Bison Range	145
Introduction. "Mapping" Indigenous Presence: The Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples at Rhetorical Turns and Tipping Points Kathryn W. Shanley	5
1. Growing Indigenous Influence on Research, Extended Perspectives, and a New Methodology: A Historical Approach Bjørge Evjen and David R. M. Beck	27
2. Indigenous Methodologies in Research: Social Justice and Sovereignty as the Foundations of Community-Based Research Annjeanette E. Belcourt, Gyda Swaney, and Allyson Kelley	57
3. Indigenous Education in the Norwegian and U.S. Contexts Phyllis Ngai, Unn-Doris Karlsen Bæk, and Gry Paulgaard	78
4. "A Future for Indians as Indians": D'Arcy McNickle's Pluralism and the Future of Indigenous Theory David L. Moore	120

5. Federal-Tribal Comanagement of the National Bison Range: The Challenge of Advancing Indigenous Rights Through Collaborative Natural Resource Management in Montana Robin Saha and Jennifer Hill-Hart	143
6. The Sámi Influence in Legislative Processes: Adoption of the Finnmark Land Act of 2005 Øyvind Ravna	189
7. Authenticity and the Construction of “Indianness” in Visual Media, or Trickster Goes to the Movies Bob Boyer	211
8. Crossroads on the Path to Mental Decolonization: Research, Traditional Knowledge, and Joy Harjo’s Music Laura Castor	229
9. Looking Both Ways: Future and Tradition in Nils- Aslak Valkeapää’s Poetry Harald Gaski	250
Afterword. The Montana-Tromsø Project: A Scholarly Conversation on Indigenous Peoples and Multicultural Societies Bjørge Evjen	279
Contributors	287
Index	295