

Narratives of Globalization

Reflections on the Global Condition

Edited by
Julian C. H. Lee

ROWMAN &
LITTLEFIELD
INTERNATIONAL

London • New York

Contents

Foreword	vii
Joseph M. Siracusa
Acknowledgments	xi
1 Introduction: Reflections on the Global Condition	1
Julian C. H. Lee
2 On Culture and Hybridity: ‘Gangnam Style’ and the Inventiveness of Tradition	7
Julian C. H. Lee
3 On Transculturation: Re-enacting and Remaking Latin American Dance and Music in Foreign Lands	21
Elizabeth Kath
4 On Non-Places: Localizing the Global at Changi Airport’s Terminal 3, Singapore	37
Chris Hudson
5 On the Global Image: Globalization as a Visual-Ideological Phenomenon	51
Tommaso Durante
6 On the World Wide Web: Disrupting Education in the Digital Age	63
Debra Bateman
7 On Neoliberalism and Welfare: Payday Lending and Commodifying Social Provisioning	73
Marcus Banks and Greg Marston

8	On Language and Interculturality: Teaching Languages and Cultures for a Global World	85
	Chantal Crozet
9	On Diversity and Language: My Route through Different Cultures, Languages, and Ideologies	95
	Lynne N. Li
10	On a Global Moral Economy: Young People and Engaging with Others in Need	105
	Rebekah Farrell
11	On Universal Human Rights: Universality and Sexual and Reproductive Health Rights	117
	Ian Howie
12	On Global Security: International Law, Use-of-Force and Hegemony	133
	Aiden Warren
13	Afterword	149
	Julian C. H. Lee
	References	153
	Index	179
	About the Contributors	185