

Pirkkoliisa Ahponen • Päivi Harinen
Ville-Samuli Haverinen
Editors

Dislocations of Civic Cultural Borderlines

Methodological Nationalism, Transnational
Reality and Cosmopolitan Dreams

Sondersammelgebiet
Volks- & Völkerkunde
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

 Springer

Contents

1	Introduction.....	1
	Pirkkoliisa Ahponen
Part I Belonging to Membership: Changing Frames of Citizenship
2	Living in an Age of Migration and Diasporas	21
	Zygmunt Bauman
3	Contents of Citizenship? Multiple Citizens' Orientations Towards Nationality and Different Forms of Citizenship	33
	Jussi Ronkainen
Part II Studying Dislocations: From Methodological Nationalism to Methodological Cosmopolitanism
4	Which Side? Young Multicultural Generation Facing Nationalistic Research Frameworks.....	57
	Päivi Harinen and Antti Kivijärvi
5	Embodied and Moral Methodological Cosmopolitanism in Opposition to the Rise of Neo-nationalism: A Micro-analytical Perspective	71
	Sofia Laine
6	Political Transnationalism as a Matter of Belonging: Young Kurds in Finland	87
	Mari Toivanen
7	Marginal Actors? Diaspora Somalis Negotiate Their Citizenship.....	107
	Mulki Al-Sharmani and Cindy Horst

Part III Complex Preconditions of Cosmopolitan Citizenship: Toward Learning Society

8	Dilemmas of Cosmopolitan Education in the Context of Transnationalism	125
	Devorah Kalekin-Fishman
9	The Internationalisation of Higher Education: Multicultural, Transnational and Cosmopolitan Perspectives Approached.....	145
	Anna Medvedeva and Pirkkoliisa Ahponen
10	Is Education Still Enough? Skilled Sub-Saharan Africans Face the Nordic Labour Market	161
	Mathias E. Ebot
11	From Locals to Cosmopolitans: Transferring the Territorial Dimensions of Cultural Citizenship	177
	Pirkkoliisa Ahponen
	Afterwords	197