

MULTICULTURALISM AND INTERCULTURALISM

---

Debating the Dividing Lines

Edited by
Nasar Meer, Tariq Modood and Ricard Zapata-Barrero

EDINBURGH
University Press

Contents

---

Foreword	vii
Charles Taylor
List of Contributors	x
1. A Plural Century: Situating Interculturalism and Multiculturalism	1
Nasar Meer, Tariq Modood and Ricard Zapata-Barrero
2. Interculturalism, Multiculturalism and Citizenship	27
Nasar Meer and Tariq Modood
3. Theorising Intercultural Citizenship	53
Ricard Zapata-Barrero
4. Quebec Interculturalism and Canadian Multiculturalism	77
Gérard Bouchard
5. Interculturalism and Multiculturalism: Similarities and Differences	104
Alain-G. Gagnon and Raffaele Iacovino
6. The Case for Interculturalism, Plural Identities and Cohesion	133
Ted Cantle
7. Defending Diversity in an Era of Populism: Multiculturalism and Interculturalism Compared	158
Will Kymlicka

CONTENTS

8. Models of Diversity in the Americas: Avenues for Dialogue and Cross-Pollination Ana Solano-Campos	178
9. Diversity, Duality and Time Geoffrey Brahm Levey	201
10. Towards an Intercultural Sense of Belonging Together: Reflections on the Theoretical and Political Level Patrick Loobuyck	225
11. Multiculturalism, Interculturalisms and the Majority Tariq Modood	246
Afterword: Multiculturalism and Interculturalism – A Critical Dialogue Bhikhu Parekh	266
Index	281