

Jun Xing · Pak-sheung Ng
Editors

Indigenous Culture, Education and Globalization

Critical Perspectives from Asia

Sondersammelgebiet
Volks- & Völkerkunde
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

 Springer

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Jun Xing and Pak-sheung Ng
Part I Indigenous Cultural Traditions: Case Studies
2	The Crisis of Xiqu in Taiwan and Its Local Cultural Response . . .	15
	Yuan-how Lee
3	Culinary Tradition and Indigenous Knowledge in the Nepal Himalayas	27
	Deepak Dorje Tamang
4	Innovation of Wayang Puppet Theatre in Bali	67
	I. Nyoman Sedana
5	A Case Study of Politics Over Local Knowledge and Practices in Marine Protected Area Development and Management	81
	Enrique G. Oracion
6	The Lords Zhou and Wang Memorial Study Hall: Local Cultural Traditions and Historic Preservation	99
	Pak-sheung Ng
7	Indian Cuisine—The Cultural Connection	119
	Sunil Mangalassary
Part II Indigenous Education: Teaching and Learning Strategies
8	Indigenization of Higher Education: Reflections from Nepal	137
	Indira M. Shrestha and Sanjaya K. Khanal
9	The State of Indigenous Education in the Philippines Today	159
	Jayeel Serrano Cornelio and David Faustino T. de Castro

10	The Use of GIS Technology in Cultural Heritage Teaching a Case Study of the Interactive Platform for Cultural Field Trips	181
	Kam-hung Kwok and Ka-wai Fan
11	The Ground Work Solution: Learning Strategies Toward Self-reliance in Asia	207
	Wiwat Salyakamthorn
12	Confucianism and Contemporary Education Phenomena	227
	Wai-Ying Wong and Ngai-Ying Wong
13	Teaching and Learning to Read Kanji as L2: Why Are They Difficult?	245
	Sachiko Matsunaga
14	Mutual Interpretation of Identities and Local Knowledge: Anthropological Fieldwork Training Programs Among Ethnic Minorities in Yunnan and Rural Communities in Pearl River Delta in Guangdong	263
	Jianxiong Ma	