

RETHINKING REPRESENTATIONS OF ASIAN WOMEN
CHANGES, CONTINUITY, AND
EVERYDAY LIFE

Edited by

Noriko Ijichi, Atsufumi Kato, and Ryoko Sakurada

Sondersammling
Volks- & Kulturstudien
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: Pluralizing Images, the Sphere of Everyday Life, and the Agency of Relatedness: Representative Interventions for Women in Asia Noriko Ijichi, Atsufumi Kato, and Ryoko Sakurada	1
1 The Mother's Identity among the Korean Diaspora Women of Japan Jung-Eun Hong	17
2 On Encouraging Mothers of Multiple Children through the Order of the Mother Glorious in Mongolia Turmunkh Odontuya	35
3 Imperial Japan and the Female Skin Divers ( Chamsu ) of Jeju Island, South Korea Noriko Ijichi	51
4 Everyday Practices of Immigrant Vietnamese Women in Japan in Obtaining Ingredients for the Food of Their Homeland Erina Seto-Suh	69
5 Divorced Newcomer Korean Women in Japan: The Decision to Remain in Japan and Lifestyle Adjustments Dukin Lim	87
6 Crafting Religious Selves in a Transnational Space: Japanese Women Who Converted to Islam upon Marrying Pakistani Migrants Masako Kudo	105

7	Working in the City and Rearing Children in the Hometown: Women-centered Relationships of a Patrilineal Chinese Family in Peninsular Malaysia Ryoko Sakurada	123
8	A Concerned Mother of the Souls in the House: The Agency of Vietnamese Elderly Women Who Live Alone in Their Home Villages Atsufumi Kato	139
9	A Regime Where the Woman's Voice Is Heard: Guanluoyin as a Form of Abortion Ritual in Contemporary Taiwan Grace Cheng-Ying Lin	155
10	The Role of Women's Self-Help Networks in Anti-caste Discrimination Movements in Nepal Kanako Nakagawa	173
	List of Contributors	191
	Index	193