

Collective Memories in War

Edited by Elena Rozhdestvenskaya,
Victoria Semenova, Irina Tartakovskaya and Krzysztof Kosela

Contents

List of figures	x
List of tables	xi
List of contributors	xii

Introduction	1
---------------------	---

E. ROZHDESTVENSKAYA, V. SEMENOVA,
I. TARTAKOVSKAYA AND K. KOSELA

PART I

Policy of history and memory in different socio-cultural contexts	9
--	---

1 The politics of history in Poland and Germany	11
--	----

MICHAŁ ŁUCZEWSKI, PAULINA BEDNARZ-ŁUCZEWSKA
AND TOMASZ MASŁANKA

2 Collective memory and its cultural antecedents in Russia	18
---	----

MICHAÏL CHERNYSH

3 Between past and present: the forming of views on history in the Czech Republic	30
--	----

JIŘÍ ŠUBRT

PART II

Cultural memory through school textbooks	43
---	----

4 Discourse analysis of school history textbooks in Russia: representation of the Afghanistan War	45
--	----

ELIZAVETA POLUKHINA AND ALEXANDER MALYUGIN

5	Between memory and history: cultural memory in Polish school history textbooks 1945–2011 – analysis of three historical events	59
	ILONA GOŁĘBIEWSKA
6	From Soviet to Ukrainian history textbooks: conflicts of interpretation	73
	OKSANA DANYLENKO
PART III
	Memory representations in social space	83
7	The space of memory in an Afghanistan war museum	85
	IRINA TARTAKOVSKAYA AND ELENA ROZHDESTVENSKAYA
8	War after war: Second World War memorials as memory sites – the case of Warsaw	99
	KRYSTYNA EWA SIELLAWA-KOLBOWSKA
9	Local authorities, memory sites and the city space	110
	ANNA STRELNIKOVA
PART IV
	Narrating memory	123
10	‘Wounded’ memory and collective identity	125
	VICTORIA SEMENOVA
11	Afghan veterans: resonance of memory	139
	ELENA ROZHDESTVENSKAYA
12	Veteran web sites as mirrors of a forgotten war	152
	IRINA KSENOFONTOVA
PART V
	Memory and gender	161
13	Constructing masculinity from the war spirit	163
	IRINA TARTAKOVSKAYA

14	Body, memory and emotions of male members of the army with direct experience of war	176
	ALEXANDRINA VANKE
	Appendix	188
	Index	190