
REFLECTING ON AMERICA

Anthropological Views of U.S. Culture

Second Edition

Sondersammelstelle
Volks- & Völkerkunde
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Edited by

Clare L. Boulanger

CONTENTS

1. Introduction: Upon Further Reflection 7
Clare L. Boulanger
2. America—The View from across the (Reflecting) Pond 9
Clare L. Boulanger
- Ecology/Economy
3. Mickey, Nicky, and Barbie: Kinderculture in America 17
Richard H. Robbins
4. Consuming Ourselves to Death 29
Richard Wilk
5. The Button: Not a Simple Notion 41
Paul Grebinger
6. Safety and Health in the “Safer and Healthier” Agriculture 51
Brandi Janssen
- Family Life and Leisure
7. Chauffeuering and Commuting: A Story of Work, Family, Class, and Community 65
Lara Descartes, Conrad P. Kottak, and Autumn Kelly
8. Military Families: The Long Journey Home 81
Sarah Hautzinger and Jean Scandlyn
9. Every Time We Type Goodbye: Heartbreak American-Style 97
Ilana Gershon
10. Striptease, Leisure, and Labor in the Midwestern United States 105
Beth Hartman
- Class and Power
11. Talk of “Broken Borders” and Stone Walls: Anti-immigrant Discourse and Legislation from California to South Carolina 121
Ann Kingsolver
12. Gender, Race, and Class in America: Home in New Haven 135
Micaela di Leonardo
13. Welcome to an East Harlem Shooting Gallery 151
Philippe Bourgois

Ritual and Religion

14. A Pilgrimage to the Past: Civil War Reenactors at Gettysburg
Matthew H. Amster 167
15. Memories of Burning Man
S. Megan Heller 181
16. When Worlds Collude: Groundhog Phil and the Super Bowl Meet on Candlemas
Robert Myers 193
17. Metakinesis: How God Becomes Intimate in Contemporary American Christianity
Tanya M. Luhrmann 205

Ideology

18. Little Boys Writ Big: Gender, Economy, and The Big Bang Theory
Clare L. Boulanger 225
 19. Warmaking as the American Way of Life
Catherine Lutz 237
 20. American Cultural Denial: The CATs' Compass
E. L. Cerroni-Long 253
 21. Living Up to Our Words
Paul Durrenberger 265
- About the Contributors 275