

WORLD HERITAGE
ON THE GROUND
Ethnographic Perspectives

Edited by Christoph Brumann and David Berliner

Sondersammelgebiet Volks- & Völkerkunde

in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

berghahn
NEW YORK • OXFORD
www.berghahnbooks.com

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Introduction. UNESCO World Heritage – Grounded? Christoph Brumann and David Berliner	1

PART I. CITIES

1. Affects and Senses in a World Heritage Site: People-House Relations in the Medina of Fez Manon Istasse	37
2. 'UNESCO is What?' World Heritage, Militant Islam and the Search for a Common Humanity in Mali Charlotte Joy	60
3. Heritage Making in Lijiang: Governance, Reconstruction and Local Naxi Life Yujie Zhu	78
4. Multiple Nostalgias: The Fabric of Heritage in Luang Prabang (Lao PDR) David Berliner	97

PART II. ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITES

5. Thinking Globally and Acting Locally in Angkor 125
Keiko Miura
6. One List, a World of Difference? The Dynamics of Global Heritage at Two Neighbouring Properties 147
Noel B. Salazar
7. Civilization and the Transformation of Xiaotun
Village at Yin Xu Archaeological Site, China 171
Shu-Li Wang
8. The Business of Wonder: Public Meets Private at the World Heritage Site of Chichén Itzá 193
Lisa Breglia

PART III. CULTURAL LANDSCAPES

9. Decolonizing the Site: The Problems and Pragmatics of World Heritage in Italy, Libya and Tanzania 219
Jasper Chalcraft
10. Prickly Prestations: Living with (World)
Heritage in Osogbo, Nigeria 248
Peter Probst
11. Mapungubwe Cultural Landscape: Extractive
Economies and Endangerment on South Africa's Borders 273
Lynn Meskell
- Conclusion. Imagining the Ground from Afar:
Why the Sites Are so Remote in World
Heritage Committee Sessions 294
Christoph Brumann
- Index 319