

Urban Foodways and Communication

Ethnographic Studies
in Intangible Cultural Food
Heritages Around the World

Edited by Casey Man Kong Lum and Marc de Ferrière le Vayer

Sonderaamendement
Vol. 1
In samenwerking met de L. C.

ROWMAN & LITTLEFIELD
Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
1 At the Intersection of Urban Foodways, Communication, and Intangible Cultural Heritage: An Introduction Casey Man Kong Lum and Marc de Ferrière le Vayer	1
2 Bacalhau —A Love Story: An Ethnographic Study of Portuguese Foodways paula arvela	23
3 Kimchi Nation: Constructing Kimjang as an Intangible Korean Heritage Chi-Hoon Kim	39
4 The Lebanese Bigarade : A Tree at the Heart of Urban Foodways Aïda Kanafani-Zahar	55
5 Shark Town: Kesennuma's Taste for Shark and the Challenge of a Tsunami Jun Akamine	71

6	The Story in My Matzah Ball Soup: Food as Memory, Identity, and Culture in Contemporary Jewish Barcelona Catherine Simone Gallin	87
7	Gastronomic Festivals and Celebrations on the Montenegrin Coast: Promoting Multicultural Heritage through Traditional Foodways Ivona Jovanović, Andriela Vitić-Četković, and Charles A. Baker-Clark	103
8	FIFA vs. As Baianas de Acarajé and the Politics of the Cultural Imaginary Scott Alves Barton	121
9	Edible Heritage: Tradition, Health, and Ephemeral Consumption Spaces in Mexican Street Food José Antonio Vázquez-Medina, Miriam Bertrán, and F. Xavier Medina	139
10	Botteghe Storiche : A Study of the Disappearance of Historic Food Shops and Its Role in the Transformation of Rome's Urban Social Life Sonia Massari, Elena T. Carbone, and Salem Paulos	153
11	Urban Melting Pot: Food Heritage in Yakutia Isabelle Bianquis and Isabella Borissova	169
12	Epilogue: Urban Foodways as Communication and as Intangible Cultural Heritage Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz	185
	Notes	201
	Index	229
	About the Authors	233