

Ulrike Liebert
Anne Jenichen (eds.)

Europeanisation and Renationalisation

Learning from Crises for Innovation and Development

Verlag Barbara Budrich
Opladen • Berlin • Toronto 2019

Table of Contents

Anne Jenichen and Ulrike Liebert

1. The double-edged nature of crises – sources of decline; resources for development 9

I. Europeanisation versus Neo-Nationalism in Times of Crisis

Joachim Schild

2. France’s European politics in the face of the polycrisis 21

Ben Crum

3. Living with anti-pluralist populism in Europe: Insights from the Dutch 2017 elections 37

Vratislav Havlik

4. Europeanisation or renationalisation? The Czech Republic facing the euro-, economic and refugee crises 49

Dimitri A. Sotiropoulos

5. In the wake of the economic crisis: the empowerment of (un-)civil society in Greece 65

Stefan Wallaschek

6. The politics of solidarity in Europe’s migration crisis: Media discourses in Germany and Ireland 81

Sezin Dereci

7. Civil society as an agent of Europeanisation in EU accession countries: Comparing Turkey and Serbia 95

II. Reexamining the Crisis of European Integration

Anne Jenichen

8. The British EU referendum and ethnic minorities: Lessons for European integration 113

Table of Contents

Natascha Zaun

9. EU decision-making in asylum policy: Lessons from the ‘refugee crisis’ 127

Florian Wittmann

10. State capacity in crisis: EU conditionality and administrative reforms in the post-communist new member states 143

Petra Guasti and David Siroki

11. European Human Rights between transnational order and domestic politics 155

Andreas Heinrich and Heiko Pleines

12. Towards a common European energy policy? Energy security debates in Poland and Germany; the case of the Nord Stream pipeline 169

Gabriele Abels

13. Theorising European integration and Europeanisation through a gendered lens 183

III. European Innovation and Development

Dennis Zagermann

14. The European Central Bank in the euro crisis: The case of the OMT program 199

Tilmann Morata Liebert

15. Global climate change governance from Paris to Montreal: Enabling factors for ambitious EU climate action 215

Anders Hentschel

16. The European governance of economic and monetary crises – lessons for democratic legitimacy 231

Gesche Lange and Ulrike Liebert

17. The European Parliament in hard times: potentials and constraints of governing the Euro crisis 243

Table of Contents

Laura Landorff

18. Intergroups as alternative venues to the European Parliament for civil society	265
--	-----

Adriana Ciancio

19. What democracy for the European Political Union? Lessons for a European party system	281
--	-----

Conclusion

Ulrike Liebert

20. Europe's unfinished journey: diverging narratives, innovative concepts and political development	297
--	-----

Authors' notes	317
----------------------	-----

Index	321
-------------	-----