

Shahram Khosravi
Editor

After Deportation

Ethnographic Perspectives

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

1	Introduction Shahram Khosravi	1
2	Fieldnotes from Cape Verde: On Deported Youth, Research Methods, and Social Change Ines Hasselberg	15
3	Starting Again: Life After Deportation from the UK Sarah Turnbull	37
4	Helping Women Prepare for Removal: The Case of Jamaica Alice Gerlach	63
5	Back from “the Other Side”: The Post-deportee Life of Nigerian Migrant Sex Workers Sine Plambech	81
6	Paying to Go: Deportability as Development Michael Collyer	105

7	Deportees Lost at “Home”: Post-deportation Outcomes in Afghanistan Nassim Majidi	127
8	“My Whole Life is in the USA:” Dominican Deportees’ Experiences of Isolation, Precarity, and Resilience Tanya Golash-Boza and Yajaira Cecilia Navarro	149
9	Making It as a Deportee: Transnational Survival in the Dominican Republic Evin Rodkey	169
10	Post-Deportation Movements: Forms and Conditions of the Struggle Amongst Self-Organising Expelled Migrants in Mali and Togo Clara Lecadet	187
11	Ripples Across the Pacific: Cycles of Risk and Exclusion Following Criminal Deportation to Samoa Leanne Weber and Rebecca Powell	205
12	“Non-admitted”: Migration-Related Detention of Forcibly Returned Citizens in Cameroon Maybritt Jill Alpes	231
13	Afterword. Deportation: The Last Word? Nicholas De Genova	253
	Index	267