

Bob W. White
Editor

Intercultural Cities

Policy and Practice for a New Era

Edited by Bob W. White
in Zusammenarbeit mit der

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

1 From Policy to Practice and Back Again: The Montreal Forum on Intercultural Cities	1
Bob W. White
Part I Intercultural Policy and Cities	19
2 What is an Intercultural City and How Does It Work?	21
Bob W. White
3 Intercultural Integration: From an Ideology of the Oppressed to the Mainstream	55
Irena Guidikova
4 The Role of Intercultural Cities	65
Patrice Allard

Part II	A Tale of Seven Cities	73
5	Oslo: On the Road to Becoming an Intercultural City Tone Skodvin and Phil Wood	75
6	Building Intercultural Policies and Practices in the City of Barcelona Kira Bermúdez, Rafa Crespo, Ramon Sanahuja, and Carolina Astudillo	103
7	Botkyrka: From Multiculturalism to Interculturalism Helena Rojas and Daniel de Torres Barberi	145
8	A City on the Go: Designing Intercultural Policies in Reggio Emilia Damiano Razzoli	181
9	Diversity Policy and Intercultural Change in the Borough of Lewisham Jude Bloomfield and Paul Chapman	215
10	Cohesion on the Horizon: The Construction of Intercultural Integration Policy in Neuchâtel Céline Maye, Federica Merzaghi, and Sandrine Keriakos Bugada	251
11	The Case of Montréal: Intercultural City “Avant la Lettre”? Marta Massana and Gilles Rioux	281

Part III	The Montréal Forum and Beyond	315
12	Intercultural Cities and the Problem with Loaded Words Jorge Frozzini	317
13	The Notion of “Diversity Advantage” According to the Council of Europe Daniel Côté	329
14	Towards a Comparative Analysis of Intercultural Cities Marta Massana	347
15	The Future of Intercultural Cities Bob W. White	359
	Index	371