

Gearoid Millar
Editor

Ethnographic Peace Research

Approaches and Tensions

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit Berlin – C

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: The Key Strengths of Ethnographic Peace Research	1
	Gearoid Millar
2	Contextualizing Ethnographic Peace Research	21
	Birgit Bräuchler
3	Feminist Ethnographic Research: Excavating Narratives of Wartime Rape	43
	Annika Björkdahl and Johanna Mannergren Selimovic
4	Institutional Ethnography as Peace Research	65
	Mike Klein
5	The Impetus for Peace Studies to Make a Collaborative Turn: Towards Community Collaborative Research	89
	Bennett Collins and Alison Watson
6	Conflicting Boundaries and Roles: Impressions of Ethnographic Fieldwork in the French Banlieues	115
	Luuk Slooter

7	Violent Spirits and a Messy Peace: Against Romanticizing Local Understandings and Practices of Peace in Mozambique	137
	Nikkie Wiegink
8	Understanding Reconciliation Through Reflexive Practice: Ethnographic Examples from Canada and Timor-Leste	159
	Victoria K. Sakti and Anne-Marie Reynaud
9	Researching Peace Peacefully: Using Ethnographic Approaches in Timor-Leste	181
	Sophia Close
10	How Much Peace Can the Military Instigate? Anthropological Perspectives on the Role of the Military in Peace Intervention	207
	Maren Tomforde
11	Beyond “Being There”: Space and Mobility in Ethnographic Peace and Transitional Justice Research	231
	Courtney E. Cole
12	Conclusion: The Constructive Tension of Interdisciplinary Endeavours	253
	Gearoid Millar
	Index	273