Indigeneity on the Move

Varying Manifestations of a Contested Concept

Edited by Eva Gerharz
Nasir Uddin
Pradeep Chakkarath

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

berghahn
NEW YORK • OXFORD
www.berghahnbooks.com

Contents

List of Illustrations vii

Preface viii
Adam Kuper

Acknowledgments xiii

List of Abbreviations xv

Introduction Exploring Indigeneity: Introductory Remarks on a Contested Concept 1
Nasir Uddin, Eva Gerharz, and Pradeep Chakkarath

Part I. Struggles over Land and Resources

Chapter 1 On the Nature of Indigenous Land: Ownership, Access, and Farming in Upland Northeast India 29
Erik de Maaker

Chapter 2 Considering the Implications of the Concept of Indigeneity for Land and Natural Resource Management in Cambodia, Thailand, and Laos 49
Ian G. Baird

Part II. Becoming Indigenous

Chapter 3 Processes of Modernization, Processes of Indigenization: An Amazonian Case (Yanomami, Southern Venezuela) 71
Gabriele Herzog-Schröder

Chapter 4 Indigenous Activism beyond Ethnic Groups: Shifting Boundaries and Constellations of Belonging 92
Eva Gerharz

Chapter 5 In Search of Self: Identity, Indigeneity, and Cultural Politics in Bangladesh 119
Nasir Uddin

Part III. Indigeneity as a Political Resource

Chapter 6 Different Trajectories of Indigenous Rights Movements in Africa: Insights from Cameroon and Tanzania 143
Michaela Pelican

Chapter 7 Politics of Indigeneity in the Andean Highlands: Indigenous Social Movements and the State in Ecuador, Bolivia, and Peru (1940–2015) 172
Olaf Kaltmeier

Chapter 8 Conflicting Dimensions of Indigeneity as a Contested Political Resource in Contemporary Mexico 199
Gilberto Rescher

Part IV. Indigeneity and the State

Chapter 9 Intimate Antagonisms: Adivasis and the State in Contemporary India 221
Uday Chandra

Chapter 10 Indigeneity, Culture, and the State: Social Change and Legal Reforms in Latin America 240
Wolfgang Gabbert

Chapter 11 Fluid Indigeneities in the Indian Ocean: A Small History of the State and Its Other 270
Philipp Zehmisch

Postscriptum The Futures of Indigenous Medicine: Networks, Contexts, Freedom 294
William S. Sax

Index 315