

Feminism and the Power of Love

Interdisciplinary Interventions

Edited by
Adriana García-Andrade, Lena Gunnarsson
and Anna G. Jónasdóttir

Contents

List of figures	ix
List of contributors	x
Preface and acknowledgements	xiii
1 The power of love: Towards an interdisciplinary and multi-theoretical feminist love studies	1
LENA GUNNARSSON, ADRIANA GARCÍA-ANDRADE AND ANNA G. JÓNASDÓTTIR
PART I
Questioning love and power	13
2 The difference that love (power) makes	15
ANNA G. JÓNASDÓTTIR
3 Alienation in love: Is mutual love the solution?	36
ANN FERGUSON
4 What has happened to the feminist critique of romantic love in the same-sex marriage debate?	55
RENATA GROSSI
PART II
Love and affect	73
5 Love as affective energy: Where feminist love studies meets feminist affect theory	75
MARGARET E. TOYE
6 From murderous love to worldly love?: Affect theory, violence against women, and the materiality of love	95
KATHLEEN B. JONES

PART III

Togetherness and its forms	115
7 Feminist visions and socio-political meanings of non-monogamous love JUSTYNA SZACHOWICZ SEMPRUCH	117
8 The invisible ties We share: A relational analysis of the contemporary loving couple ADRIANA GARCÍA-ANDRADE AND OLGA SABIDO-RAMOS	137
9 Silent love: On Irigaray's suggestion of cultivating sexual difference SILVIA STOLLER	155
10 Love, feminism and dialectics: Repairing splits in theory and practice LENA GUNNARSSON	169
Index	188