

FATHERS, FAMILIES AND RELATIONSHIPS

Researching everyday lives

Edited by Esther Dermott and Caroline Gatrell

Contents

List of figures, tables and boxes	vi
Notes on contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
Caroline Gatrell and Esther Dermott
one Framing fatherhood: the ethics and philosophy of researching fatherhood Jonathan Ives	11
two Qualitative longitudinal research: researching fatherhood and fathers' experiences Tina Miller	31
three Researching fathers through surveys: methodological challenges Maria Letizia Bosoni and Sara Mazzucchelli	47
four Fatherhood research on the internet: methodological reflections from a literature review Lars Plantin and Kristian Daneback	73
five Researching fatherhood and place: adopting an ethnographic approach Therése Wissö	89
six Teleconference focus groups with fathers: 'You're on the line with ...' Simon Burnett and Caroline Gatrell	109
seven Using visual technologies: young children's perspectives on fathers Susan Milner and Rita Chawla-Duggan	131
eight Interviewing young fathers: managing ethical risks Carmen Lau-Clayton	151
nine Engaging fathers with family support services: using conversation analysis Jon Symonds	167
ten Mixing methods in fatherhood research: studying social change in family life Allan Westerling	189
eleven Capturing the bigger picture with big data: opportunities for fatherhood researchers Esther Dermott	211
Index	229