

GLOBAL ENTANGLED INEQUALITIES

Conceptual Debates and Evidence from Latin America

Edited by Elizabeth Jelin, Renata Motta and Sérgio Costa

CONTENTS

List of figures	ix
List of tables	x
Contributing authors	xi
Introduction	1
Renata Motta, Elizabeth Jelin, and Sérgio Costa
PART I
Structuring inequalities	19
1 Inequality: toward a world-historical perspective	21
Roberto Patricio Korzeniewicz
2 Transregional articulations of law and race in Latin America: a legal genealogy of inequality	42
Manuel Góngora-Mera
3 The urban space and the (re)production of social inequalities: decoupling income distribution and patterns of urbanization in Latin American cities	59
Ramiro Segura
4 Researching inequalities from a socio-ecological perspective	76
Kristina Dietz

PART II

Categorization: the construction and deconstruction of persistent hierarchies 93

- 5 The social imaginary of inequalities in Latin America:
is another view necessary? 95
Juan Pablo Pérez Sáinz
- 6 Unequal differences: gender, ethnicity/race and citizenship in class societies (historical realities, analytical approaches) 109
Elizabeth Jelin
- 7 Competing indigeneities: being a (hyper)real ecowarrior
in twenty-first-century Bolivia 128
Andrew Canessa
- 8 The symbolic construction of inequalities 144
Luis Reygadas

PART III

Dynamics of production and transformation of inequalities 159

- 9 Multiple layers of inequalities and intersectionality 161
Jairo Baquero-Melo
- 10 Millionaires, the established, the outsiders, and the poor:
social structure and political crisis in Brazil 178
Sérgio Costa
- 11 Transnational care chains and entangled inequalities 196
Anna Katharina Skornia
- 12 Socio-environmental inequalities and GM crops:
class, gender, and knowledge 214
Renata Motta
- Final reflections 231
Sérgio Costa, Renata Motta, and Elizabeth Jelin