
Routledge Handbook of Diaspora Studies

Edited by Robin Cohen and Carolin Fischer

FID SOZIAL- UND KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Contents

Contributors	ix
Diaspora studies: an introduction Robin Cohen and Carolin Fischer	1
PART I
Exploring and debating diaspora	11
1 Diaspora before it became a concept Stéphane Dufoix	13
2 Diaspora studies: past, present and promise Khachig Tölölyan	22
3 Key methodological tools for diaspora studies: combining the transnational and intersectional approaches Anna Amelina and Karolina Barglowski	31
4 The social construction of diasporas: conceptual development and the Rwandan case Simon Turner	40
5 Diasporas as social movements? Sharon M. Quinsaat	47
6 Performing diaspora Alpha Abebe	55
7 Embodying belonging: diaspora's racialization and cultural citizenship Taku Suzuki	63
8 Music, dance and diaspora Ananya Jahanara Kabir	71

Contents

9	Diasporic filmmaking in Europe Daniela Berghahn	79
10	Writing in diaspora Zuzanna Olszewska	86
PART II
Complex diasporas		95
11	Making and 'faking' a diasporic heritage Marc Scully	97
12	Translanguaging and diasporic imagination Zhu Hua and Li Wei	106
13	Multi-religious diasporas: rethinking the relationship between religion and diaspora Dominic Pasura	113
14	Homelessness and statelessness: possibilities and perils Barzoo Eliassi	120
15	Diaspora and class, class and diaspora Nicholas Van Hear	129
16	Working-class cosmopolitans and diaspora Pnina Werbner	138
17	Transversal crossings and diasporic intersections Amanda Wise	146
18	Intersectionalizing diaspora studies Marie Godin	154
19	Bridging the mobility–sedentarism and agency–structure dichotomies in diasporic return migration Nanor Karageozian	163
PART III
Home and home-making		171
20	Unravelling the conceptual link between transnationalism and diaspora: the example of hometown networks Thomas Lacroix	173

21	Deportees as 'reverse diasporas' Shahram Khosravi	181
22	Diasporicity: relative embeddedness in transnational and co-ethnic networks Takeyuki (Gaku) Tsuda	189
23	Moral comforts of remaining in exile: snapshots from conflict-generated Indonesian diasporas Antje Missbach	197
24	Islamic schooling and the second generation: a diaspora perspective Hannah Höchner	206
25	Diaspora and home: interrogating embodied precarity in an era of forced displacement Divya P. Tolia-Kelly	214
26	Diasporas and political obligation Ilan Zvi Baron	223
PART IV
Connecting diaspora		231
27	Diaspora and religion: connecting and disconnecting Giulia Liberatore and Leslie Fesenmyer	233
28	Digital diasporas Mihaela Nedelcu	241
29	Diaspora politics and political remittances: a conceptual reflection Lea Müller-Funk	251
30	Postcolonial states, nation-building and the (un)making of diasporas Jen Dickinson	260
31	The plasticity of diasporic identities in super-diverse cities Tamsin Barber	268
32	Displaced imaginations, bodies and things: materiality and subjectivity of forced migration Sandra H. Dudley	276
33	Disconnecting from home: contesting the salience of the diaspora Gijsbert Oonk	284

PART V

Critiques and applied diaspora studies 291

34	Using pragmatism to approach 'diaspora', its meanings and political implications Carolyn Fischer and Janine Dahinden	293
35	Why engage diasporas? Alan Gamlen	302
36	Diaspora mobilizations for conflict: beyond amplification and reduction Maria Koinova	311
37	Diaspora and development Ben Page and Claire Mercer	320
38	Diasporas and the politics of memory and commemoration Khatharya Um	328
39	At home in diaspora: the Babylonian Talmud as diasporist manifesto Daniel Boyarin	336
40	Diasporas building peace: reflections from the experience of Middle Eastern diasporas Bahar Baser and Mari Toivanen	345
	Index	354