

MESSY EUROPE

Crisis, Race, and Nation-State in a Postcolonial World

Edited by Kristín Loftsdóttir, Andrea L. Smith, and Brigitte Hipfl

berghahn
NEW YORK · OXFORD
www.berghahnbooks.com

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Introduction Kristín Loftsdóttir, Andrea L. Smith, and Brigitte Hipfl	1
1. Wise Viking Daughters: Equality and Whiteness in Economic Crisis Kristín Loftsdóttir and Helga Björnsdóttir	31
2. “Latvians do not understand the Greek people”: Europeanness and Complicit Becoming in the Midst of Financial Crisis Dace Dzenovska	53
3. Fairness and Entitlement in Neoliberal England, 2005–2015 Steve Garner	77
4. Debating Refugee Deservingness in Post-Celtic Tiger Ireland Shay Cannedy	102
5. What Is a Life? On Poverty and Race in Humanitarian Italy Andrea Muehlebach	126
6. Policing Crisis in Austrian Crime Fiction Brigitte Hipfl	148
7. Crisis France: Covert Racialization and the Gens du Voyage Andrea L. Smith	171

8. Navigating the Mediterranean Refugee “Crisis”: Alter-Globalization Activism and the Sediments of History on Lampedusa Antonio Sorge	196
9. Epilogue: Declining Europe Thomas Hylland Eriksen	220
Index	233