

MOTHERS, MILITARY, AND SOCIETY

Edited by Sarah Cote Hampson,
Udi Lebel and Nancy Taber

Contents

Acknowledgments

3

Introduction: Mothers, Military, and Society in Conversation
Sarah Cote Hampson, Udi Lebel, and Nancy Taber

9

I.

Imagining Motherhood and the Military:
Images, Cultural Representations, and Communities

21

Chapter One

Tropes of the U.S. Military Mother: A Feminist Analysis
Patricia Sotirin

23

Chapter Two

Mothers, Martyrs, and Messages of Eternity in the Popular Culture of Pakistan
Anwar Shaheen and Abeerah Ali

57

Chapter Three

Military Moms in the Spotlight: What Media Attention on Mothers in the U.S. Military Means for Public Policy
Sarah Cote Hampson

87

Chapter Four

Connecting the Past and Future through Contemporary Discourses of Motherhood and Militarism in Canada:

Bomb Girls and Continuum

Nancy Taber

111

Chapter Five

Public Grief Is Maternal:

The Gendered Discourse of Israeli Military Bereavement

Udi Lebel and Gal Hermoni

131

II.

Me-Mother-Military:

Personal Experiences

157

Chapter Six

Mom Wore Combat Boots:

An Autoethnography of a Military Sociologist

Morten Ender

159

Chapter Seven

Choosing Motherhood in the U.S. Air Force

Elle Kowal

189

Chapter Eight

“You Can’t Have a Baby in the Army!”
and Other Myths of Moms in Military Service

Naomi Mercer

227

Chapter Nine

Understanding War as Revealed to Me by My Son:

(A Trilogy)

Beth Osnes

257

Notes on Contributors

261