

THIEMO BREYER, THOMAS WIDLÖK (EDS.)

The Situationality of Human-Animal Relations

Perspectives from Anthropology and Philosophy

[transcript]

Contents

Editorial Preface

Thiemo Breyer & Thomas Widlok | 7

The Situationality of the Lifeworld.

Reflections on Key Terms Concerning Human-Animal Relations

Erik Norman Dzwiza | 9

The Situationality of Animal Borders.

From Phenomenology to Natural History of Evolution

Kazuyoshi Sugawara | 29

Habits We (Can) Share. Human-Animal Encounters

Maren Wehrle | 51

Details of Detachment and Human Specificity.

Lessons of Nonhuman Primates for the Anthropologist

Albert Piette | 69

MAMMOTHSTEPPE-LIFE. Mammoths, Owls, and Other Creatures:

Sketching the Trail Towards a Comparative Investigation of Human-Animal Situations in the European Upper Paleolithic

Shumon T. Hussain | 83

“Fish are either there, or they aren’t”. A Contra-Species

Ethnography on Anglers and Fish in Olpe, Germany

Mario Schmidt | 113

Killing a Wounded Sow. A Phenomenological Approach to a Problematic ‘Hunting Situation’

Thorsten Gieser | 129

Interspecies Performance.

The Composition of the Arabian Show Horse as Living Sculpture

Christoph Lange | 143

On Horseback. Horse-Human Situations in Trail Riding
Tanja Theissen | 167

Honeybees in the Life and Religion of the People of Arnhem Land, Australia
Aung Si | 185

Lions and Flies. Forager-Animal Situations
Thomas Widlok | 203

About the Authors | 221