

Metacognitive Diversity

An Interdisciplinary Approach

Edited by
Joëlle Proust and Martin Fortier

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of contributors xi

- 1 Metacognitive diversity across cultures: An introduction 1
Joëlle Proust and Martin Fortier

Part I Introducing metacognition

- 2 Of fluency, beauty, and truth: Inferences from metacognitive experiences 25
Norbert Schwarz
- 3 Shared fluency theory of social cohesiveness: How the metacognitive feeling of processing fluency contributes to group processes 47
Rolf Reber and Ara Norenzayan
- 4 Making the most of individual differences in joint decisions 68
Bahador Bahrami

Part II How does metacognition develop? Cross-cultural studies

- 5 Revisiting privileged access 83
Paul L. Harris
- 6 Developmental diversity in mindreading and metacognition 97
Sunae Kim, Ameneh Shahaiean, and Joëlle Proust
- 7 The developmental role of experience-based metacognition for cultural diversity in executive function, motivation, and mindreading 134
Athanasios Chasiotis

Part III Metacognition in communication

- 8 The relation between language and mental state reasoning 153
Ercenur Ünal and Anna Papafragou
- 9 Respectable uncertainty and pathetic truth in Amazonian Quichua-speaking culture 170
Janis Nuckolls and Tod Swanson
- 10 Managing epistemicity among the Yucatec Mayas (Mexico) 193
Olivier Le Guen

Part IV Metacognitive regulation and self-concept

- 11 The world as we see it: The culture–identity–metacognition interface 225
Veronica X. Yan and Daphna Oyserman
- 12 Learning: A cultural construct 245
Ulrich Kühnen and Marieke van Egmond
- 13 Cultural models in Tongan metacognition 265
Giovanni Bennardo

Part V Metacognition within religious practices

- 14 Prayer as a metacognitive activity 297
Tanya M. Luhrmann
- 15 Depletion and deprivation: Social functional pathways to a shared metacognition 319
Uffe Schjødtt and Jeppe Sinding Jensen
- 16 Sense of reality, metacognition, and culture in schizophrenic and drug-induced hallucinations: An interdisciplinary approach 343
Martin Fortier

Part VI Do epistemic norms vary across cultures?

- 17 Knowledge, intuition, and culture 381
Stephen Stich
- 18 Metacognitive variety, from Inner Mongolian Buddhism to post-truth 395
Jonathan Mair
- 19 Explanatory pluralism across cultures and development 415
Cristine H. Legare and Andrew Shtulman

Index 433