

Yellow Perils

China Narratives in the Contemporary World

EDITED BY

Franck Billé and Sören Urbansky

University of Hawai'i Press
Honolulu

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

- 1 Introduction 1
Franck Billé
- 2 Yellow Peril Epidemics: The Political Ontology of Degeneration and Emergence 35
Christos Lynteris
- 3 Day of Judgment: Australia and the Rise of Asia 60
David Walker
- 4 Chinese Entrepreneurship in Prato, Italy 84
Xiaojian Zhao
- 5 Yellow, Red, and Black: Fantasies about China and “the Chinese” in Contemporary South Africa 108
Romain Dittgen and Ross Anthony
- 6 “The Chinese are Coming”: Social Dependence and Entrepreneurial Ethics in Postcolonial Nigeria 142
Yu Qiu
- 7 Sinophobic Tales: Imaginations of China from the Northern Border 170
Franck Billé
- 8 Swarm of the Locusts: The Ethnicization of Hong Kong–China Relations 197
Kevin Carrico
- 9 Who’s Afraid of Confucius? Fear, Encompassment, and the Global Debates over the Confucius Institutes 221
Magnus Fiskesjö

10	Fears Abroad, Propaganda at Home: Reflections on the Yellow Peril Discourse in China	246
	Sören Urbansky
	Contributors	267
	Index	271