

State, Resistance, Transformation

Anthropological Perspectives on the Dynamics of Power in Contemporary Global Realities

Edited by Bruce Kapferer

FTD SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Sean Kingston Publishing

www.seankingston.co.uk

Canon Pyon

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	Crises of power and the state in global realities BRUCE KAPFERER	1
CHAPTER 1	Challenges to the European state The deep play of finance, demos and ethnos in the new old Europe DON KALB	23
CHAPTER 2	State formation, territorialization and the challenge of movement HEGE TOJE	67
CHAPTER 3	The state? What state? State, confessionalism and civil society in Lebanon ANH NGA LONGVA	97
CHAPTER 4	'Yogya Inc.' Transformed kingship in decentralizing Indonesia ELDAR BRÅTEN	119
CHAPTER 5	Resistance as a problem An ethnic minority and the state in twenty-first century Indonesia OLAF H. SMEDAL	153
CHAPTER 6	Sovereignties in the making Reflections on state and society in the Sudan LEIF MANGER	185
CHAPTER 7	Pastoralists at war with the state Historical armed violence in the shadow state of north-eastern Uganda ERIA OLOWO ONYANGO	207
CHAPTER 8	Buddhist cosmological forms and the situation of total terror in Sri Lanka's ethnic civil war BRUCE KAPFERER AND ROSHAN DE SILVA-WIJEYERATNE	231

CHAPTER 9	Inside and outside the state in Italy and Botswana Historical and comparative reflections on state apparatuses of capture and rhizomic forces ØRNULF GULBRANDSEN	265
CHAPTER 10	Arts for the people Public support and private patronage JUDITH KAPFERER	295
CHAPTER 11	Repressive ententes, organized crime and the corporate state DONALD M. NONINI	317
AFTERWORD	Notes on crisis and transformation of political orders in the global arena JONATHAN FRIEDMAN	349
NOTES ON THE CONTRIBUTORS		359