

Kenneth Dean · Peter van der Veer
Editors

The Secular in South, East, and Southeast Asia

FID SOCIAL-UNIT
RESEARCH CENTER
RESEARCH CENTER

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Kenneth Dean and Peter van der Veer
2	Asian Catholicism, Interreligious Colonial Encounters and Dynamics of Secularism in Asia	13
	José Casanova
3	The Secular in India and China	37
	Peter van der Veer
4	Spirit Mediums and Secular–Religious Divides in Singapore	51
	Kenneth Dean
5	Secularization, Sacralization and Subject Formation in Modern China	83
	David A. Palmer and Fabian Winiger

6	The Third Globalization of Catholicism in Greater China Richard Madsen	107
7	“Folk Belief,” Cultural Turn of Secular Governance and Shifting Religious Landscape in Contemporary China Xiaoxuan Wang	137
8	The Roles of Secular States in the Development of Contemporary Chinese Buddhism: A Cross-Strait Perspective on Buddhist Nunneries Tzu-Lung Chiu	165
9	Communist Ideology, Secularity, and Reenchantment: Challenges for the Catholic Church in Vietnam, 1954–2015 Peter C. Phan	191
10	The Uncle HỒ Religion in Vietnam Tam T. T. Ngo	215
11	From Secularism to Popular Progressiveness: Popular Religion and the Creation of Telangana Regionalism Stefan Binder	239
12	Adjudicating the Sacred: The Fates of “Native” Religious Endowments in India and Hong Kong Leilah Vevaina	261
13	Secularism and Religious Modernity in Sri Lanka and Singapore: Trans-regional Revivalism Considered Neena Mahadev	287
	Erratum to: The Secular in South, East, and Southeast Asia Kenneth Dean and Peter van der Veer	E1
	Index	313