

Celebrity Audiences

Edited by

Su Holmes, Sarah Ralph and Martin Barker

Contents

Citation Information	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction: Audiences for stardom and celebrity Su Holmes, Sarah Ralph and Martin Barker	1
1. Celebrating with the celebrities: television in public space during two royal weddings Andreas Widholm and Karin Becker	6
2. Using stars, not just ‘reading’ them: the roles and functions of film stars in mother–daughter relations Sarah Ralph	23
3. ‘Cristiano Ronaldo is cheap chic, Twilight actors are special’: young audiences of celebrities, class and locality Ana Jorge	39
4. Celebrity culture and audiences: a Swedish case study Sofia Johansson	54
5. Wrestling with grief: fan negotiation of professional/private personas in responses to the Chris Benoit double murder–suicide Tom Phillips	69
6. ‘I love you, please notice me’: the hierarchical rhetoric of Twitter fandom Amanda K. Kehrberg	85
7. Swivelling the spotlight: stardom, celebrity and ‘me’ Su Holmes, Sarah Ralph and Sean Redmond	100
Index	119