

Colonial Encounters in a Time of Global Conflict, 1914–1918

Edited by Santanu Das, Anna Maguire and Daniel Steinbach

Contents

List of figures	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Colonial encounters in a time of global conflict: an introduction	1
SANTANU DAS, ANNA MAGUIRE AND DANIEL STEINBACH
PART I
Spaces: camp, city, colony	35
1 ‘A pageant of empire?’: untangling colonial encounters in military camps	37
ANNA MAGUIRE
2 Urban spaces of cultural encounters: the Greek city of Salonika in the First World War	57
NICOLE IMMIG
3 The British military occupation of Jerusalem, 1917–1920: soldiers as tourists and pilgrims	79
MAHON MURPHY
4 Between intimacy and violence: imperial encounters in East Africa during the First World War	98
DANIEL STEINBACH

PART II

Process: experience, commonalities and politicisation 123

- 5 Precarious encounters: South Asia, the war and anti-colonial cosmopolitanism 125

SANTANU DAS

- 6 Songs of war and dissent: Maori anti-war activism and its cultural legacy 149

RACHEL GILLETT

- 7 Blues in the trenches: John Jacob Niles' Singing Soldiers 170

MICHAEL HAMMOND

- 8 The YMCA and West Indian pan-African encounters during the First World War: the Drury Lane Club for 'Coloured Sailors and Soldiers' 190

RICHARD SMITH

PART III

Instrumentality: propaganda, resistance and the post-war world 215

- 9 African American soldiers in a black world: the politics of cultural interactions 217

JENNIFER D. KEENE

- 10 Influencing the Muslim world: the British propaganda newspaper Al-Haḳīqah 238

SADIA McEVOY

- 11 'Neutral colonials' and the global war: the role of the neutral Dutch East Indies and Indonesian intellectuals in the German 'Programme for Revolution' 262

TESSA LOBBES

- 12 Germany's Global East: worldmaking in The New Orient 287

JENNIFER JENKINS

List of contributors 310

Index 314