

WOMEN AND GENDER PERSPECTIVES IN THE MILITARY

AN INTERNATIONAL COMPARISON

Robert Egnell and Mayesha Alam, Editors

Foreword by Amb. Melanne Vermeer

Georgetown University Press / Washington, DC

CONTENTS

	Foreword by Amb. Melanne Verwee	vii
	Acknowledgments	xi
1	Introduction: Gender and Women in the Military—Setting the Stage Robert Egnell and Mayesha Alam	1
2	Women in UN Peacekeeping Operations Sabrina Karim	23
3	Sweden’s Implementation of a Gender Perspective: Cutting Edge but Momentum Lost Robert Egnell	41
4	The Gender Perspective and Canada’s Armed Forces: Internal and External Dimensions of Military Culture Stéphanie von Hlatky	73
5	The Role and Impact of Change Catalysts on the Netherlands Defense Organization: Integration of Women and Gender in Operations Yvette Langenhuizen	87
6	Women and Gender in the US Military: A Slow Process of Integration Brenda Oppermann	113
7	Women, Gender, and Close Combat Roles in the UK: “Sluts,” “Bitches,” and “Honorary Blokes” Anthony King	141
8	Are Women Really Equal in the People’s Army? A Gender Perspective on the Israel Defense Forces Hanna Herzog	153

9	The Case of Australia: From “Culture” Reforms to a Culture of Rights	173
	Susan Harris Rimmer
10	Three Waves of Gender Integration: The Causes, Consequences, and Implications for the South African Armed Forces	207
	Lindy Heinecken
11	Integrating Gender Perspectives at NATO: Two Steps Forward, One Step Back	225
	Charlotte Isaksson
12	Conclusion: Lessons of Comparison and Limits of Generalization	253
	Robert Egnell and Mayesha Alam
	List of Contributors	267
	Index	271