

Feminist Political Ecology and the Economics of Care

In Search of Economic Alternatives

Edited by Christine Bauhardt and Wendy Harcourt

Contents

List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Introduction: Conversations on care in Feminist Political Economy and Ecology	1
WENDY HARCOURT AND CHRISTINE BAUHARDT
2 Nature, care and gender: Feminist dilemmas	16
CHRISTINE BAUHARDT
3 White settler colonial scientific fabulations on otherwise narratives of care	36
WENDY HARCOURT
4 Environmental feminisms: A story of different encounters	55
KARIJN VAN DEN BERG
5 Climate change, natural disasters and the spillover effects on unpaid care: The case of Super-typhoon Haiyan	70
MARIA S. FLORO AND GEORGIA POYATZIS
6 Care-full Community Economies	99
KELLY DOMBROSKI, STEPHEN HEALY AND KATHARINE MCKINNON
7 Care as wellth: Internalising care by democratising money	116
MARY MELLOR
8 Diverse ethics for diverse economies: Considering the ethics of embodiment, difference and inter-corporeality at Kufunda	131
PAMELA RICHARDSON-NGWENYA AND ANDREA J. NIGHTINGALE

9 Striving towards what we do not know yet: Living Feminist Political Ecology in Toronto's food network	162
CARLA WEMBER
10 'The garden has improved my life': Agency and food sovereignty of women in urban agriculture in Nairobi	189
JOYCE-ANN SYHRE AND MEIKE BRÜCKNER
11 Transnational reconfigurations of re/production and the female body: Bioeconomics, motherhoods and the case of surrogacy in India	211
CHRISTA WICHTERICH
12 Menstrual politics in Argentina and diverse assemblages of care	230
JACQUELINE GAYBOR
13 Bodies, aspirations and the politics of place: Learning from the women brickmakers of La Ladrillera	247
AZUCENA GOLLAZ MORÁN
14 Towards an urban agenda from a Feminist Political Ecology and care perspective	262
ANA AGOSTINO
Index	287