

Anthropology of Family Food Practices

Constraints, Adjustments, Innovations

P.I.E. Peter Lang

Bruxelles · Bern · Berlin · New York · Oxford · Wien

Table des matières

Introduction. Between Constraint and Innovation: the Transformations of Domestic Food Practices	9
Marie-Pierre Julien

WHEN POLITICS COMES TO THE TABLE

An Emergent Mix of Traditional, National and Global Cuisines: Lower-middle Class Consumption in Post-apartheid South Africa	29
Sophie Chevalier

From Shantytown to City Life: How Moral Regulation and Dynamic Inventiveness Structures Roma Families' Eating Practices in France.....	55
Kátia Lurbe I Puerto

Constraints as Drivers in Norwegian Family Food Practices. On Porridge as Tradition and Pizza as Transgression.....	83
Virginie Amilien

Food Habits in Post-Socialist Romania. Between Shortage and Abundance.....	109
Anda Georgiana Becuș

CONSTRAINTS TO ADJUSTMENTS IN DOMESTIC SPACES

Temporality and Family Meals: Recurrence is Not Routine. Necessary Disruptions.....	135
Marie-Pierre Julien

Food Daily Inventions under Age Constraints: the Case of Dependent Retired Couples	163
Philippe Cardon

Feeding young Children with Home-made Food: Routines,
Necessary Disruptions and Production of Domestic Rituals 183
Anne Dupuy, Amandine Rochedy, Charlotte Sarrat

Food Practices among Moroccan Families in Milan: creative adjustments of cultural repertoires 215
Elsa Mescoli

ANTHROPOLOGY AS AN INNOVATION PRACTICE

Can We Treat the Eater as an Abstraction? On Design, Anthropology and the Rise of “Homo Usus” in Innovation 241
Olivier Wathelet

From Village Agricultural Systems to Urban Middle Class
Kitchens. The Detour, the Transposition and the Translation:
the Three Skills of Professional Anthropology 267
Dominique Desjeux

Conclusions: Creating Freedom under Constraint 287
Nicoletta Diasio

The Authors 299