Spaces of Security

Ethnographies of Securityscapes, Surveillance, and Control

Edited by

Setha Low and Mark Maguire

FID

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY PRESS
New York

CONTENTS

Introduction: Exploring Spaces of Security 1
Mark Maguire and Setha Low

1. Security Urbanism and the Counterterror State in Kenya 31
Zoltán Glück

2. Comparative Surveillance Regimes: A Preliminary Essay 57
Katherine Verdery

3. Borderization and Public Security in Argentina 78
Alejandro Grimson and Brígida Renoldi

4. From Panopticon to Panasonic: The Architecture of Fear in Mega-Events 99
Carmen Rial

5. Securing Security: Recursive Security Assemblages in South Africa 122
Thomas G. Kirsch

6. Domesticating Security: Gated Communities and Cooperative Apartment Buildings in New York City and Long Island, New York 141
Setha Low

7. Domesticating Spaces of Security in Israel 163
Nurit Bird-David and Matan Shapiro

8. The Political Economy and Political Aesthetics of Military Maps 184
Catherine Lutz

9. Enigmatic Presence: Satellites and the Vertical Spatialities of Security 206
Stephen Graham

10. Re-Spatializing Social Security in India 231
Ursula Rao

About the Editors 253

About the Contributors 255

Index 257