

Rebecca Anne Barr · Sean Brady
Jane McGaughey
Editors

Ireland and Masculinities
in History

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

- 1 Ireland and Masculinities in History: An Introduction 1
Rebecca Anne Barr, Sean Brady and Jane McGaughey
- 2 Caught in a Contract: Congreve, Farquhar and Contractarian Masculinities 19
James Ward
- 3 ‘Whole Swarms of Bastards’: A Modest Proposal, the Discourse of Economic Improvement and Protestant Masculinity in Ireland, 1720–1738 39
Clíona Ó Gallchoir
- 4 Bog Men: Celtic Landscapes in Mid-Eighteenth-Century Satire 67
Declan Kavanagh
- 5 Primogeniture, Strict Settlement and the Rituals of Masculinity on an Irish Landed Estate, 1855–90 89
Kevin McKenna
- 6 Thomas A. Hickey: The ‘Uncrowned King’ and Irish Masculinity on Two Continents 109
Peter H. Buckingham

7	Games for Boys: Masculinity, Boyhood and Play 1922–1939 Mary Hatfield	133
8	Fianna Fáil's Agrarian Man and the Economics of National Salvation Aidan Beatty	155
9	Bachelor Trouble, Troubled Bachelors: The Cultural Figure of the Bachelor in Ballybunion and Mullingar Ed Madden	177
10	Irish Fatherhood in the Twentieth Century Dara E. Purvis	203
11	'No Idle Sightseers': The Ulster Women's Unionist Council and the Masculine World of Politics During the Ulster Crisis, 1912–14 Pamela McKane	221
12	Irish Protestant Masculinities and Orangewomen in Scotland, Canada and England, 1890–1918 D. A. J. MacPherson	253
13	Masculinities, Political Transition and Power: A Case Study of Northern Ireland Fidelma Ashe	273
14	Afterword: Irish Masculinities and Gender History Sonya O. Rose	293
	Index	303