

The Public Work of Christmas

Difference & Belonging
in Multicultural Societies

THE SOCIAL WORK
DEPARTMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Edited by
Pamela E. Klassen and Monique Scheer

McGill-Queen's University Press
Montreal & Kingston · London · Chicago

Contents

- Figures and Table      ix
Acknowledgments      xi
- 1 The Difference That Christmas Makes:
Thoughts on Christian Affordances in Multicultural Societies
Pamela E. Klassen and Monique Scheer      3
- 2 Tense Holidays:
Approaching Christmas through Conflict
Monique Scheer      17
- 3 “And then! Oh, the noise! Oh, the Noise! Noise! Noise! Noise!”
or How the Grinch Heard Christmas
Isaac Weiner      36
- 4 “Stille Nacht” Time and Again:
Christmas Songs and Feelings
Juliane Brauer      60
- 5 Situating German Volkskunde’s Christmas:
Reflections on Spatial and Historical Constructions
Christian Marchetti      86
- 6 “The First ‘White’ Xmas”:
Settler Multiculturalism, Nisga’a Hospitality,
and Ceremonial Sovereignty on the Pacific Northwest Coast
Pamela E. Klassen      118

- 7 Oy Tannenbaum, Oy Tannenbaum!
The Role of a Christmas Tree in a Jewish Museum
Yaniv Feller 142
- 8 “What Exactly Do You Celebrate at Christmas?”:
Different Perceptions of Christmas among
German-Turkish Families in Berlin
Sophie Reimers 161
- 9 A Christmas Crisis:
Lessons from a Canadian Public School’s Seasonal Skirmish
Helen Mo 188
- 10 Christmas on Orchard Road in Singapore:
Celebrating the Gift of Jesus Christ between Gucci and Tiffany
Katja Rakow 212
- 11 A Cathedral Is Not Just for Christmas:
Civic Christianity in the Multicultural City
Simon Coleman, Marion Bowman, and Tiina Sepp 240
- 12 Epilogue: Containing the World in the Christmas Mood
Hermann Bausinger 262
- Contributors 273
Index 277