

Articulate Necrographies

Comparative Perspectives on the Voices and Silences of the Dead

Edited by Anastasios Panagiotopoulos and Diana Espírito Santo

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

berghahn
NEW YORK • OXFORD
www.berghahnbooks.com

Contents

Introduction	1
Anastasios Panagiotopoulos and Diana Espíritu Santo
Part I. Necrographic Frameworks
Chapter 1
Voices and Silences of the Dead in Western Modernity	17
Tony Walter
Chapter 2
Coping with Massive Urban Death: The Mutual Constitution of Mourning and Recovery in World War II's Bombing War	40
Antonius C.G.M. Robben
Chapter 3
Biographies and Necrographies in Exchange: From the Self to the Other	63
Anastasios Panagiotopoulos
Part II. Necrographic Observations
Chapter 4
The Making of Spirit Bodies and Death Perspectives in Afro-Cuban Religion	85
Diana Espíritu Santo

Chapter 5
Sensory Necrography: The Flow of Signs and Sensations in the Corpse	106
Beth Conklin
Chapter 6
Unanchored Deaths: Grieving the Unplaceable in Samburu	125
Bilinda Straight
Chapter 7
The Sociality of Death: Life Potentialities and the Vietnamese Dead	141
Marina Marouda
Chapter 8
“Enlightened” Spirits: Modern Exchanges between the Living and the Dead under Spiritism	165
Raquel Romberg
Chapter 9
Channeling the Flow: Dealing with Death in an African-Based Religion	186
Gabriel Banaggia
Chapter 10
Of Shadows and Fears: Nepalese Ghost Stories from Classical Texts and Folklore to Social Media	205
Davide Torri
Chapter 11
Death Isn’t What It Used to Be: Animist and Baptist Ontologies in Tribal India	227
Piers Vitebsky Afterword
The Necrographic Imagination	244
Magnus Course
Index	251