

Katherine C. Donahue • Patricia R. Heck
Editors

Cycles of Hatred and Rage

What Right-Wing Extremists in Europe and Their Parties Tell Us About the US

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

1 Introduction	1
Patricia R. Heck and Katherine C. Donahue
2 Old and New Nationalisms in the Brexit Borderlands of Northern Ireland	25
Thomas M. Wilson
3 From Houses and Grandparents to Brexit: Connections Between Memory, Objects and Right-Wing Populism	53
Ana Carolina Balthazar
4 “Dancing” with the Extreme Right: Do New Partners Bring New Dangers to Germany?	73
Patricia R. Heck
5 Dispossession, Anger, and the Making of a Neoliberal Legitimacy Crisis	103
Sinan Celiksu
6 In the Camp of the Saints: Right-Wing Populism in Twenty-First-Century France	117
Katherine C. Donahue

7 Independence Day: The Emotional Tenor of Populism in Poland	143
Marysia H. Galbraith
8 Dance Populism: The Potato Principle and the New Hungarian Dance Craze	169
László Kürti
9 Conclusion	195
Roberto J. González
Index	217