

SOUTHEAST ASIAN ANTHROPOLOGIES
National Traditions and Transnational Practices

Edited by

Eric C. Thompson and Vineeta Sinha

INSTITUT FÜR SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

NUS PRESS
SINGAPORE

Contents

Preface		ix
Introduction	Anthropologies in Southeast Asia Eric C. Thompson and Vineeta Sinha	1
Section 1	The Making of Anthropological Traditions
Chapter 1	Concepts of Filipinos: Anthropology as Social Science, Politics and Nationhood Jose Jowel Canuday and Emma Porio	21
Chapter 2	Cambodian Anthropology: Negotiating Identity and Change Chivoïn Peou	56
Chapter 3	Vietnamese Anthropology at the Crossroads of Change Nguyen Van Chinh	83
Section 2	Challenges in Anthropological Practice
Chapter 4	Recovering Filipino Production of a Maritime Anthropology Maria F. Mangahas and Suzanna Rodriguez-Roldan	111
Chapter 5	Domesticating Social Anthropology in West Malaysia Yeoh Seng-Guan	141

Chapter 6	Documenting “Anthropological Work” in Singapore: The Journey of a Discipline Vineeta Sinha	169
Section 3 Trends in Transnational Anthropologies
Chapter 7	Local and Transnational Anthropologies of Borneo Victor T. King and Zawawi Ibrahim	207
Chapter 8	Boundaries and Ambitions of Indonesian Anthropology Yunita T. Winarto and Iwan M. Pirous	243
Chapter 9	Assessing Doi Moi (Renovation) Anthropology in Vietnam Dang Nguyen Anh	276
Chapter 10	The Transnational Anthropology of Thailand Ratana Tosakul	292
	About the Contributors	322
	Index	326