
CITIZENSHIP IN MOTION

South African and Japanese
Scholars in Conversation

Edited by
Itsuhiro Hazama, Kiyoshi Umeya &
Francis B. Nyamnjoh

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

In collaboration

*Langa RPCIG
Mankon Bamenda*

CAAS Kyoto University

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction:

Flexible Citizenship in the 21st Century Africa1

Itsuhiro Hazama, Kiyoshi Umeya &
Francis B. Nyamnjoh

SECTION A: CONCEPTUALISATIONS: AN EXPLORATION OF THE LITERATURE IN BROAD STROKES

Chapter 2: Global and African

Discourses on Citizenship39

Anye-Nkwenti Nyamnjoh & Claire-Anne Lester

Chapter 3: Inclusive Citizenship:

Review of Literature63

Ayanda Manqoyi

Chapter 4: Demarcating Battle Lines:

Citizenship and Agency in the Era of Misanthropy87

Tamara Enomoto

SECTION B: CITIZENSHIP INFORMED BY INTERCONNECTEDNESS

Chapter 5: Citizenship Practices in the Resistance of North-eastern

Ugandan Pastoralists121

Itsuhiro Hazama

Chapter 6: Reflexive Accounts on

Uganda General Election 2016:

The Agency of the Dead and Its

Effect among Western Nilotes149

Kiyoshi Umeya

Chapter 7: Buddhist Altars in Vacant Houses and the Citizenship of the Deceased	169
Toshiki Tsuchitori

Chapter 8: Creation of Cooperativity through Memorial Rituals for the Dead: Ritual Citizenship among the Alur in the Republic of Uganda	187
Noriko Tahara

Chapter 9: In and Out of Family: Family Affairs and Deep Play at Nightclubs in Kampala, Uganda	217
Gaku Moriguchi

SECTION C: SOUTH AFRICAN CONVERSATIONS ON CITIZENSHIP

Chapter 10: The Miracle in Misfortune: South Africa Belongs to All Those Who Can Afford It	241
Olivia Joanes

Chapter 11: From Amakwerekwere Car Guard to a South African Citizen: An Autoethnographic Account	269
Kongo Minga Mbweck

Chapter 12: Vesseling: Discursively Negotiating Citizenship and Belonging in Post-apartheid South Africa	297
Zuziwe Nokwanda Msomi

Chapter 13: Opening up Academic Citizenship for Students from Previously Excluded Groups: The Case of a Foundation Course at the University of Cape Town	317
Msakha Mona

Chapter 14: Mental Mobilities and Belonging to the Hip Hop Nation.....347
Marlon Swai

SECTION D: CONCLUDING REFLECTIONS ON WHERE WE THINK CITIZENSHIP WILL GO IN FUTURE

Chapter 15: Spectres of Citizenship:
Reflections on the Hauntologies of Belonging in Zakes Mda's *Ways of Dying*383
Harry Garuba

Chapter 16: Rethinking Citizenship in 21st Century Africa:
Some Conceptual Considerations401
Francis B. Nyamnjoh

Index:417