

THE SOCIOLOGY OF DEBT

Edited by Mark Featherstone

Contents

Notes on contributors	iv
Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: towards a sociology of debt Mark Featherstone	1
1 Debt, complexity and the sociological imagination Lisa Adkins	27
2 Debt drive and the imperative of growth Ole Bjerg	49
3 Memory, counter-memory and resistance: notes on the 'Greek Debt Truth Commission' Joshua Bowsher	69
4 'Deferred lives': money, debt and the financialised futures of young temporary workers Mark Davis and Laura Cartwright	91
5 'Choose your moments': discipline and speculation in the indebted everyday Samuel Kirwan, Leila Dawney and Rosie Walker	119
6 Digital subprime: tracking the credit trackers Joe Deville	145
7 Debt, usury and the ongoing crises of capitalism Nicholas Gane	175
8 The art of unpayable debts Max Haiven	195
9 Ecologies of indebtedness Mark Featherstone	231
Index	251